Alphabetical List	5-82

Addresses by States	85-99
Treasurer's Report	101-102

To the Members of the Class of 1902:

In preparing this list of addresses it was thought best to change the form of matter from that of the list which was prepared for the Triennial Celebration. It will be remembered that the alphabetical list in the latter recorded only the name of the member, his home and business addresses, while any other information was given in another part of the book. This year it was decided to place all information in the alphabetical list.

Early in the autumn of 1907 the Secretary began to gather information and received replies from six hundred and thirty-six, out of a membership of seven hundred and thirty-one. This leaves ninety-five men who failed to answer, and only thirty-two of the announcements were returned for want of proper address. The preparation of the address lists is laborious and expensive, and as the entire value of such a record depends on its completeness, the Secretary hopes that every man who has not sent any report card will do so at once, and that all members of the class will aid him in finding these sixty-three men.

Every effort has been made to give each member credit for degrees received. Names having no sign opposite them indicate bachelors of arts; those having the sign thus (°) denote bachelors of science, those having the sign thus (†) denote non-degree holders, and those having (*) denote that they have failed to reply to the Secretary's notices.

For the further convenience of members it was thought advisable to prepare a second list of addresses by states, giving the city or town in which a man lives. Street numbers may be obtained by referring to the alphabetical list.

Five deaths have occurred since the last report was published.

The Secretary wishes to urge the necessity of keeping him informed of the changes of address, the marriage or the death of any classmate, as it is in this way only that we shall continue in touch with one another and keep up a strong and healthy class spirit.

BARRETT WENDELL, Jr.,

June 1, 1908. 44 State Street, Boston, Mass.
